Free games for kids, by age

Peabody · checked 2026-11-09

Peabody has free games for kids from age 3 to age 10, sorted by age on this page. Preschool games say every question aloud. From age 5, each game asks reading and math questions at the child's grade, as three big boxes to tap. No sign-up, no download and no ads. Free through the end of 2026.

- Age: 3 and 4 · Usually in: Preschool · Learning games that fit: Tap-only games, every question said aloud · Three to start with: · The page: Preschool learning games
- Age: 5 · Usually in: Kindergarten · Learning games that fit: 10 · Three to start with: Pet Hatch, Build World, Kraken Falls Waterpark · The page: Free educational games for 5 year olds
- Age: 6 · Usually in: 1st grade · Learning games that fit: 10 · Three to start with: Pet Hatch, Build World, Kraken Falls Waterpark · The page: Free games for 6 year olds
- Age: 7 · Usually in: 2nd grade · Learning games that fit: 10 · Three to start with: Pet Hatch, Build World, Kraken Falls Waterpark · The page: Free educational games for 7 year olds
- Age: 8 · Usually in: 3rd grade · Learning games that fit: 10 · Three to start with: Pet Hatch, Build World, Kraken Falls Waterpark · The page: Free games for 8 year olds
- Age: 9 · Usually in: 4th grade · Learning games that fit: 10 · Three to start with: Pet Hatch, Build World, Kraken Falls Waterpark · The page: Free games for 9 year olds
- Age: 10 · Usually in: 5th grade · Learning games that fit: 10 · Three to start with: Pet Hatch, Build World, Kraken Falls Waterpark · The page: Free games for 10 year olds

The ages are the usual ones for each US grade. A game's questions follow the grade a child picks, not their age, so a child can play up or down. Peabody never asks a child's age.

What children are working on

At 5, most children are working on letters and the sounds they make, the first sight words, counting and adding small numbers. The games for that age are on free educational games for 5 year olds.

At 7, most children are working on reading longer sentences, spelling, adding and subtracting bigger numbers, and the first times tables. The games for that age are on free educational games for 7 year olds.

At 9, most children are working on multiplication and division, longer words, fractions and reading for meaning. The games for that age are on free games for 9 year olds.

Pick by what a child likes

Every game is for every child. These are sorted by what a child likes to do.

- Racing, running and jumping: Dip & Dash, Wake the Dragon
- Pets and animals: Pet Hatch
- Building: Build World, Stone Age
- Space: Astro Rescue, Rocket Number Blast

By grade or by skill

- Learning games by grade, from kindergarten
- Learning games by skill
- Math and reading by grade

A few games for older kids are left off this list. The rest are in the arcade.

Questions parents ask

Are these games free?

Yes. Every game is free through the end of 2026, with no ads, no download and no sign-up to start playing.

Which page is for a 3 or 4 year old?

The preschool learning games. They are tap-only, with every question said aloud, so a child who cannot read yet can play.

Do I need to tell Peabody my child's age?

No. Peabody never asks a child's age. When a game asks for a grade, pick the one your child is in. They can pick a different grade at any time.

My child is older than 10. Where do they go?

Try the middle school games, or the arcade for every game.

Free at peabody.kids/games-for-kids