The Monster Who Could Not Sleep

Level 5 · 12 pages

A little monster named Bo lay under a bed.

He tossed and turned, but he could not sleep.

Above him, a boy named Leo could not sleep either.

Leo peeked over the edge of the bed.

“I am awake too,” he whispered.

“I am cold,” said Bo. “My feet are bare.”

Leo gave him a warm, soft sock.

“Thank you,” said Bo. “Now I want to give you something.”

Bo gave Leo his old toy bear.

Leo hugged the bear and felt sleepy.

Bo pulled on the sock and felt sleepy too.

Soon, they were both fast asleep.
