The Rainbow Race

Level 5 · 12 pages

The rain stops. Grandpa sits on a bench.

Jo and Max look up. A rainbow!

It is big and bright. It has red, green, blue and more.

"I will get to the end first!" said Max.

"No, I will!" said Jo. They run up the hill.

They run past the pond. The rainbow is still far away.

They run in the mud. Splat! They are wet and tired.

Grandpa calls them back. "Look at your shadows!"

"The sun is at your back," said Grandpa.

"A rainbow needs sun and rain drops. The sun is behind you."

"The rain drops must be in front of you."

Jo and Max sit with Grandpa. They look at the rainbow.
